A Photographic Interview for the Sunday World

(AUTHOR OR "THE HEAVENLY TWINS.") (NEXT SUNDAY.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING SPORTS

The Rogers Brothers in the "Funny Side" Office.

Clever Brace of Dutch Comedians Spend a Day in the Sunday World Office and Edit a Page of The World's Comic Weekly. (NEXT SUNDAY.)

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1901.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY DESCRIBES THE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO.

"WE WENT AT THEM TO SMASH THEM."

IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS GET

JUDGE JEROME STARTLES MUNICIPAL LEAGUE WOMEN.

He Tells Them It Is Useless to Try to Kill the Social Evil, as There Are 100,000 of Their Sex in New York Living on the Wages of Sin.

Judge Jerome startieth four hundred members of the Municipal Women's League in Carnegie Hall this actionomy of the triby had heard from District-Attorney Philbin of the horrors of the "Red Light" District "Cadet" System, by telling them that it was impossible to crush out the social evil, as 100,00 women in New York are now existing on the wages of sin.

It was apparent that many of the women had taken that many of the women had taken that may be telling a former and the madience today.

It was apparent that many of the women had taken that he closely. It is not today.

In introducing Mr. Philbin, the chair-from a desperate disease and desperate Edunders must be adopted. He referred to Devery as "that bold rufflam," who was largely responsible for the unspeakuble conditions of the properties of the women. The light of the large of the terrible evils which surrounded the dily he felt that they were "These Libings" he said, "have brought tears to my eyes, and I'm, and Mr. Philibin said before entering he had been adopted to the conditions of their fife actions and the conditions of their fife actions and the conditions of their fife actions and the condition of those poor strained that the city was suffering from mothers whose children and the conditions of their fife actions and the condition of the properties of the women and the condition of the properties of the women in the subject of the seal strained that the city was suffering from a desperate disease and desperate Edundation of the properties of the women in the best viction of the properties of the women in the best viction of the properties of the women in the large of the terrible evils which any owner of the properties of the proper

MANY MET AWFUL DEATHS IN BIG PHILADELPHIA FIRE.

A gasol ne explosion in a ninestory building this morning started the fiercest fire Philadelphia has

At 3 p. m. the known dead were swenty-four. Eleven were seriously injured.

Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s furniture and upholstery establishment, where the fire started, was entirely destroyed.

Several adjacent buildings wer burned or crushed in, and Wanamaker's immense stores were in danger for three-quarters of an hour. The total damage by fire and water is estimated at $1,000,000. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.-The Dozens of streams of water are horrible death, left many more badly gin to search for bodies. injured, and reduced the nine-

TOOK BABES AND LEFT.

At 3 o'clock, when four bodies were

Mrs. Elizabeth Callahan, Her Husband Says. Went to Live with Another.

Mrs. Elizabeth Callahan and Isaac Court to-day charged with disorderly conduct. Detective Snydecker, of the of the best known presidents and other Oak street station, arrested them at No. that several days ago his wife took her cause.

mitted the children to the care of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Coal Barge Ran n Rock. STONINGTON, Conn., Oct. 25 .- While ne tug George H. Tice, bound from New York to Providence with two coal parges, was passing through the chan nel near Latimer's Reef light early to day, the steering gear of one of the arges broke and the vessel went on u DCK. She began to leak and was towed that this harbor and beached.

Nineteen Known Dead and Many Injured in land Fierce Blaze Which BURK, EMMA, colored, cleaning win-Destroys Hunt, Wil- CRAMER, DOLLY, No. 1528 North Forkinson & Co.'s Nine-taken from the ruins and a leg, an total of known dead was twentyfour.

be little hope that the majority of the bodies will be identified.

flercest fire to s city has ever known playing on the red-hot ruins, and as UNKNOWN MAN, head crushed in; an in less than an hour this morning soon as the men can get to work sent over a score of persons to a hundreds of city employees will beat No. 1219-21 Market street, to ruins. floor. He immediately escaped and gave

MANY FILIPINO ARRESTS.

Apprehension of Francisco de Jesus Lends to Other Captures,

MANILA, Oct. 25.-Francisco de Jesus, Lukban's chief commissary, was re-cently captured and taken to Cebu-Moore were arraigned in Centre Street Papers which he had in his possession her return. , have resulted in the arrest of many 22 Batavia street on complaint of John The captures are considered to be a Callahan, the woman's husband. He said great disaster to the revolutionary

The people of the island of Samar two bables and left him to live with Moore.

Magistrate Crane sentenced them to three months on the island and com-

MRS. HANNA WINS FIGHT.

Former Husband Spandons Attempt to Secale Sons.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 75.—Attorney Andrew Squire, who represents Dan R Hanna, is in New York to-day, and will effect a final settlement of the alimoncase which is pending against the Sen-ty-eighth street; last seen on fire-escape; burled in ruins. Story Furniture GILES. --, assistant to electrical con-

Building in Philadel- GORMLEY, SUSAN, forty-two, of No. 1727 Filbert street; died in hospital, LANDES, CHARLES L., twenty-five, No. 4515 Chester avenue.

SPARROW, CHARLES, nephew o arm and some bones were found, the SPARROW, HENRY A., No. 1229 Chestnut street, electrical contractor, en- WILD RIDE IN AUTO. gaged with force of men putting up

The Fire Marshal thinks there will WHITTINGTON, FREDERICK, thirty, assistant designer, Swarthmore, Pa employed on the seventh floor. UNKNOWN MAN, middle aged, badl burned about head and face.

open-faced gold watch in pocket.

the alarm. At that time there were At 10.30 o'clock the elevator boy many work people in the building. story building of Hunt, Wilkinson & discovered fire in the elevator shaft. Escape was shut off. The fire spread Co., furniture and upholstery goods. At that time he was on the seventh rapidly and in thirty minutes from this city to New York and thence to Europe last July attracted attention throughout the country, Dan Hanna announced to-day that he would take no further steps to gain possession of his sons. Mrs. May Har rington Hanna's home on East Pros-

(Continued on Second Page.)

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the thirtysix hours ending at S P. M. Saturday for New York City and vicinity-Fair and cool with frost to-night; Saturday fair; fresh to light northwest winds becoming variable.

Insist Upon Getting Evans when you want quality in ale. ...

Good, substantial homes are to be lator's son by Mrs. May Harrington Cound by bright seekers through Sun-Hanna, whose sensational flight from day World Wants.

On orders from Washington the immigration officials her are watching all incoming vessels for Earl Russell, who was convicted of bigamy in England and served three months in ja They have instructions to hold him up if found on any of the

ORDERS ON EARL RUSSELL.

Atlantic liners and bring his case before the Board of Specia Inquiry, which has power under the Federal law to exclude a persons convicted of cimes, except poitical, from the country

LATE RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

Third Race—Hilee 1, Lasso 2, Bengal 3. Fourth Race-Ethylene 1. Huntress 2. Toby Tosa 3.

AT WORTH.

Third Race—Gallantrie 1. Nellie Waddell 2, Julia Junkin Fourth Race—Federal 1, Lennep 2, Orontas 3. Fifth Race-Red Hook 1. Inspector Shea 2, Tom Wallace

NEW TROOPS FOR PHILIPPINES.

washington, Oct. 25.—It is planned to replace troops had been called to quarters, about 9.35 new in the Philippines with others from the United States. The octock.

The ship was lying at that time with the land, in the Fourth, Thirteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second her head in toward the land, in the and Twenty-third Infantry will be withdrawn and replaced by direction of Cabanas, a little cove to the Eleventh, Twelfth and Fifteenth Cavalry and the Twentyseventh, Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Infantry.

POLICE ASKED TO LOOK FOR MISSING MAN.

The Leonard street police have been asked to look for G. H. Bridgeford, of No. 189 Hudson street, who has been missing since Oct. 20. He is 5 feet 7 inches talls of florid complexion

A partial list of the killed is as fol-

WARRANTS FOR BROKERS.

Magistrate Crane in the Centre Street Court this afternoon isued warrants for members of the firm VICTIM OF GAS FUMES. of W. R. Vermilye & Co., of No. 52 Broadway, which failed yesterday. it is said that the members of the firm are in Philadelphia.

. . .

Miss Henrietta Reid was carried on a wild ride through a Paterson (N. J.) street to-day in an auto. William Arnold, owner of the machine, got out to fix it, when the auto was accidentally started. It ran several blocks and was finally SAILORS MAY LOSE VOTES. wrecked. Miss Reid was badly in-

CAPITALISTS SEE A STRIKE.

While President Stickney, of the Chicago and Great Western Railway, was showing Cornelius Vanderbilt, Stephen S. Little and W. A. Read, of New York, through the shops of that railroad at Oelwein. la., 500 men walked out. They demanded the removal of an unpopular foreman, which demand was refused by the company.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

· Lawyer Myer J. Stein and Isaac Guterstein were held for trial by Magistrate Brann in the Yorkville Court this afternoon for displaying a fusion ticket campaign banner on the building. No. 1126 Lexington avenue.

CORNWALL SAILS FOR ENGLAND. ST., JOHN'S, N. F., Oct. 25.-The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York sailed for England today on the Royal yacht Ophir, with the cruisers Niobe and Diadem forming the escort. HALL CAINE ELECTED.

LONDON Oct. 25 .- Hall Caine town of Ramsay in the Manx ParHament, receiving 458 votes to 191 cast for his opponent, a local lawyer named Kermode.

Mrs. John Hopkins, of Jersey

City, this morning found her daugnter Et el dead in bed and another daughter, Mildred, unconscious. Gas was leaking from a broken jet.

that men waiting in the place of titled to have their names registered as voters.

More than two hundred sailors will be affected by the decision of blood that are not visible in his elster. Justice Bischoff in a test case now before him. The Board of Registry refused to register names of voters who live on boats, and Jusvoters who live on boats, and Jus-been discharged because he demorNinety-first street, between Lexington afraid he was going to die. We got the alized their shops by acting as and Park avenues, agent for Miller and his 520 per cent. syndicate.

BARGAINING WITH BRIGANDS. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 25.-

Communication has been established from Melnik, Province of Salonica, with the brigands who abducted Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and her companion, Mme. K. S. Tsilka. Messrs. Peet and Eddy had a long conference to-day on the various phases of the Stone affair, based on despatches received from Melnik.

FIRE ROUTED HOTEL PATRONS. has been elected to represent the BULLER BRAVED KING EDWARD. A small blaze in oHtel Beresford, LONDON, Oct. 22.-It has been in Central Park West, frightened

Style and Credit Given to All—Sampson Not to Testify.

Rapid Destruction of the Spanish Fleet Told in Vivid

Schley described the battle of Santiago before the Naval Court of In- not have given or made a signal. quiry this afternoon and held every-being taken. Notables in the navy. army and official circles were in the gathering, and the Admiral seemed said that the day broke fair, with a pleasant land breeze. continued the Admiral, "I went up on deck to see what could be observed alth glasses. We were lying at that time possibly three miles or a little over from the land, and I remember to have Sampson Sailed Away. "At at o'clock an orderly reported to he flarship to disregard her movement wondered why the enemy permitted us bor of the Spanish fleet, the witness when I heard a call from the forward bridge to tell the Commodore that the feet is coming out. "That was some time after the the westward and one of the marking the entrance of the harbor, 'I ed to the westward. of the ships. I saw the Texas appeared to me to be heading on of sight and out of signal distance | clearly, and never hesitating for a word, with glasses.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.-Admiral imine what my position in the action was to be. Of course, if the New York Intely continuous; there was no had not been out of distance I would "I had in the mean time gone for ward on a little platform that I had had constructed around the tower as my position in the fight. I had only been there a moment or two mean time Mr. Hodgson, who was on the upper bridge, sang out something to the Captain about being connected ip and all ready.

n.er Commodore, they are coming light between their legs. right at us. 'Well,' I said, 'go right for them,' and the belm was put aport.

The ship was started ahead first at perhaps half speed. I don't recollect that. She took her way very quickly and I said to Cook 'Holst the signal, close in for action."

Went at Spaniards.

"Then followed the signal 'Close up. and the Brooklyn as well as all the transgressed, a according to the original plan. We all column, the idea being to arrest and knock them to pieces as they came on. or twelve minutes," he said, "and I saw not only all of the enemy's ships, but all the ships of our fleet closing in. One the forts as well, were firing apparently thousand yards is the limit of effective at the Brooklyn. torpedo range.

Spaniards Failed.

"As we were approaching about that distance I mentioned something of tha sort to Capt, Cook, at the same time saying to him, 'Much will depend upon this ship to-day.' Cook repiled that we would soon be within the cross fire

"I saw Lieut. Simpson's first shot and then I saw the first vessel in the Span ish line take a rank sheer to the west ward, leaving the Viscaya coming and any the enemy coming out of straight on. Then the latter also turn would control their subsequent course. "Capt. Cook now gave the order of the love. The Indiana was to and he replied. 'It is aport' or Coming to the turn of the Brooklyn Admiral Schley, speaking steadily and of flame.

said that he had never seen a ship

Teans. I am sure we were never nearer that vessel than 600 yards. nection with the Texas."

He said the closest range given was 1.100 yards.

"We were so close," he went on, "that remember I could see men on the Spanish ships running between the su-

"During the turn. Commander Hodgson should 'look out for the Texas.'

"We continued on our course for ten the Brooklyn's starboard bow, and that "That moment and for the next fifteen

At this point, the Admiral said the minutes were the most serious of the combat," he said, and he told how jets how deafening was the noise of the

"The roar of the projectiles," he said was such as can only be heard once. and once heard car never-be forgotten. All four of the Spanish vessels were firing on the Brooklyn, and none of the Spanish vessels at that time showed any

To Stick to Them.

Then the thought passed through my nind that they might get away, and I plan of the Spaniards had failed and feared we should have most of the fight, that the battle-ships would be effective

> 'stay with this crew.' " Telling of the coming up Oregon during the chase, Admiral Schley said he had never before realized that such rapid fire was possible as was emitted from these two vessels

(Continued on Fourth Page.)

STOKES'S ALLEGED WIFE IS A PRETTY OCTOROON.

Married.

That Resamend Barclay, who says she is the wife of Edward S. Stokes, was NOTERS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE responsible for the termination of the Justice Bischoff decided to-day bitter feud that has existed between by Ed. Barclay, the brother o registry at the closing hour are en-titled to have their names regis-World reporter to-day that the story told by Dennist, Mr. Stokes's valet, was

Ed. Barclay is a stalwart young octoroon. He is six feet tall, muscular and good looking, but shows traces of negro He has lived in the Stokes family ever since Stokes first met his sister. Recently he has been taking care of

The valet Dennist, though, appartice Bischoff is asked to decide whether they are legal voters.

GENT FOR MILLER SYNDICATE. In defending a suit brought by a former employee for $10,000 damages the E. W. Bliss Company, of Brooklyn, to-day pleaded before of Brooklyn, to-day pleaded before with the case of the state of the s AGENT FOR MILLER SYNDICATE. lonaire through a newspaper personal. Justice Hooker that the man had Her mother and brother then lived in Rose. She was here in New York.

> with Mr. Stokes as his wife," said Ed. Rose nursed him, too. He was getting Barelay to-day, "they were not married worse all the time and afraid of dying. until a year ago. At that time my and one day Rose said to him; elling with Mr. Stokes in Canada. Rose way you do toward your cousin. W. E. had been wanting him to marry her for D recent speech, received a personal letter from King Edward intimating that he should resign. The War Secretary demanded that

Gen. Buller should resign, but he refused to do so.

learned that Gen. Buller after his

she was here in New York.

"When he got here he said he was afraid he was going to die. We got the nurse Walker to look after him and Rose nursed him, too. He was getting worse all the time and afraid of dying, and one day Rose said to him.

"You don't want to die feeling the way you do toward your cousin. W. E. D.

the patrons from their beds as a local result of the patrons from their beds as a local result of the patrons from their beds as a local result of the past."

Inct say, however, that the nights in the course which he has waged with his course were settled.

"I know Miss Barclay," said W. E. D. Slokes. "but I never heard that she was Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affairs.

"Edward's wife. I know nothing of his private affa "Although my sister lived for years nurse Walker to look after him and o'clock this morning. The fire was

. . .

Fire Marshals are investigating two fires which started within one hour this morning in the five-story tenement 3' No. 868 Second avenue. A man seen near the place

TWO PIRES IN ONE HOUSE.

one was hurt.

Rosamond Barclay's "Rose sent for W. E. D. Stokes, and Brother, Employed in Stokes was in bed, and W. E. D. went Stokes Household, to him. They shook hands and said all bad feeling was over. After that W. Stokes was always glad to see him.

tion Between the "The first time Mr. Stokes was here

Cousins-Declares telephone and told him. Mr. McNutt that His Sister Is called Rose to the phone and asked her in the house. She said he had just gone. "Mr. Stokes was getting worse all the time, and finally Mr. McNutt came to 'I was not present at the marriage had been delirious that afternoon and Rose didn't want him to do any tulking, on neither was my mother, but there "The day Walker took Mr. Stokes

Dennist called up Mr. McNutt on the confined to the basement and no NEW GIFT FROM CARNEGIE.

vided for its sunnort.

Andrew Carnegie has written the Commissioner of Education of Porto Rico offering to give $100,-000 for a library in San Juan on condition that a site be furnished and that $9,000 per annum be pro-